Copyright Policy

It is SHO's policy to respond to notices of alleged copyright infringement that comply with applicable intellectual property law and to terminate the accounts of repeat infringers. The website is a conduit for content licensed and/or provided by third parties. If you have any copyright concerns about any materials posted on this website by others, please let us know. We comply with the provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act applicable to Internet Service Providers (17 U.S.C. § 512). Please provide us with written notice to the address stated below.

To be effective, the Notice must include the following:

- A physical or electronic signature of the owner, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner ("Complaining Party") of an exclusive right that is allegedly being infringed upon;
- Information reasonably sufficient to permit SHO to contact the Complaining Party, such as an address, telephone number, and if available, an electronic mail address;
- Identification of the allegedly infringing material on the web site ("Infringing Material"), and information reasonably sufficient to permit SHO to locate such material on the web site;
- Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed upon ("Infringed Material"), or if multiple copyrighted works at a single web site are covered by a single Notice, a list of each copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed (please be specific as to which Infringing Material is infringing on which Infringed Material);
- A statement that the Complaining Party has a good faith belief that use of Infringing Material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
- Complaining Party is the owner or is authorized to act on behalf of the owner, of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
